After applying for jobs with other agencies based in Kent, I was finding the process frustrating – getting slow responses or none at all. So it was refreshing to apply for a job through Anji at Netbox Recruitment. Anji was proactive, honest and kept me up to date with all developments as well as providing helpful advice before and after the interview. I can't thank Anji enough for all her help in my new role.

Candidate placed as an Administrator

I have worked with Anji for over two years now and she continues to be my preferred recruiter. She has invested so much time in getting to know my business and the roles that we recruit for that she is spot on in identifying the best candidates for us. Anji is able to work on all levels of role with the same effectiveness and I wouldn't hesitate in recommending her to anyone looking for a recruitment partner.
