We appointed Netbox as our sole agency back in 2018 and haven't looked back since. Anji is our Account Manager, supporting us on all permanent and temporary requirements. She supplies candidates to fill many vital roles within the business. Anji spends time onsite to understand each team requirement, always taking personalities into account, meaning our employee retention is high - saving us time and money. Ultimately, Anji helps to keep the business running smoothly and efficiently

I just wanted to pass on my thanks again with the recruitment for one of our branches. The level of candidates Anji sourced at short notice was absolutely fantastic. Both receptionist appointment candidates were exactly the match we were looking for and whilst one candidate took the lead, we decided to take both on as an additional support for the area. We really appreciate your help

Anji always provides a high calibre of candidate, regardless of the role or the timescale. She takes the time to understand our business needs, and meets and interviews every candidate. She only provides me with candidates who are more than capable of settling into our business, making the process fast and cost-effective
