

CONSULTANT PROFILE ELOISE BURTON

RECRUITMENT BUSINESS PARTNER

Eloise joined the Netbox Recruitment team in early 2022 with a strong level of previous experience in the recruitment industry (as well as previously working to help candidates get back into secure work during the height of the pandemic).

She is able to draw upon her wider, generalist approach to source for a diverse range of roles across various industries and has already achieved a fantastic reputation at Netbox with a long list of glowing testimonials from both clients and candidates alike. Eloise focuses on building strong and long-lasting relationships with her clients with a commitment to truly understand their business and the precise requirements of each role. She will work as your 'brand ambassador' attracting and selecting the best local talent and helping to ensure the most seamless fit between each role and the unique skills and experience of our shortlisted candidates.

At Netbox Recruitment, we have a unique network of over 20,000 local candidates and a wider network where we gain 100's of candidate referrals for varied roles both specialist and support based. We also offer a 'Talent Guarantee', whereby we will recruit again at no cost if any candidate falls short of your expectations in line with your company probation period. This enables you to hire with confidence whilst allowing your new hire the time to settle in and truly flourish within your organisation.

Eloise is thorough, detail oriented, and results driven. She took the time to understand me, my management style, the business culture, the requirements for the vacant rolls and the existing team. She utilised this information to create the perfect candidate profile, and then targeted her vast pool of talent. Eloise was completely invested from start to finish. She streamlined the process on our end and allowed us the ability to continue to focus on our business, while she did the hard work in the background. I cannot recommend Eloise enough.

David,
Director, Channel and Partnership

Eloise was amazing in helping me out. I wasn't looking for work but she found my CV and contacted me about a role. she helped coach me for my interview and has been amazing support throughout the entire process. I can't fault her or the company, she is amazing

Charlotte
Candidate

Eloise was a fantastic help, and we have found an amazing candidate through her and Netbox Recruitment. We couldn't be happier. We received excellent service and support.

Client

I was provided with efficient service, Eloise assisted with interview preparation and matched me with a job that suited my skills. The team were friendly and supportive, providing support before and after my interviews. Jobseekers are in good hands!
